

12 Hooked on books

7 Review

7 a Language in use (p. 184)

Example answers

- 1 The teacher told us to sit down.
- 2 Sue warned me to not copy her writing homework.
- 3 Tom asked if I could help him write that blog entry.
- 4 Mum told us to wash our hands before lunch.
- 5 The teacher ordered him to stop writing text messages during the lesson.
- 6 My father forbade me to leave my room before I had finished my homework.
- 7 Gemma begged me to close the window.
- 8 Philipp wanted me to call him back at 3 pm in the afternoon.

7 b Language in use (p. 185)

noun	adjective	noun	adjective fascination	fascinating	confusion	confused / confusing
taste	tasty / tasteless	thrill	thrilled / thrilling romance	romantic	disappointment	disappointed / disappointing humour	humorous	sadness	sad
adventure	adventurous	fun	funny

7 c Vocabulary (p. 185)

genre	definition
detective story	a private investigator tries to solve a crime or a series of crimes adventure story	a suspenseful and exciting heroic tale love story	deals with the love relationship of two people thriller	an exciting fictional story about criminal activities or spying non-fiction	a factual narrative in form of a novel science fiction	often about scientific discoveries, space travel and technology of the future novel	a fictional narrative with a plot and developing characters dictionary	contains an alphabetical list of words, with information given for each word autobiography	a person writing a book about his/her life fairy tale	written for children, often with fanciful creatures and characters play	a story intended to be acted and performed on stage poem	a piece of writing in which the words are arranged in separate lines, often ending in rhyme
short story	a fictional work of prose that is shorter in length than a novel