

5 The joy of diversity

8 Review

8 a Language in use (p. 80)

- 1 If I were Alex, I'd try to find a restaurant at the airport.
- 2 I (would) suggest booking a room in a hotel as soon as possible.
- 3 He'd better buy a map in a nearby shop.
- 4 It's (high) time Alex phoned his parents to tell them that everything is/turned out okay.
- 5 Alex should change his smartphone's batteries.
- 6 He ought to ask for the best bus connections at the information desk.

8 b Language in use (p. 80)

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 he used to drink tea | 5 didn't use to read novels / never used to read novels |
| 2 didn't use to wear / never used to wear a suit | 6 used to go to school |
| 3 used to buy bread | 7 never used to behave / didn't use to behave |
| 4 used to play soccer | |

8 c Vocabulary (p. 80)

Example sentences

- 1 The advanced university programmes in Utrecht enhance the reputation of the city and attract more foreign exchange students.
- 2 Doing a gap year in Italy helped me acquire valuable language skills while enjoying breath-taking scenery.
- 3 Immigrants enrich the culture of a nation.
- 4 If you decide to move to and live in another country you need to adapt to the country's customs, lifestyle and traditions.
- 5 The local residents welcomed me with open arms.
- 6 Living in a globalised world means taking global responsibility.
- 7 Nobody should be discriminated against because of the colour of their skin or their faith.
- 8 Travelling broadens your horizons.