

7 Through the lens of media

7 Review

7 a Language in use (p. 113)

- 1 Earning less than other workers, Aylin decided to make her difficult situation public.
- 2 I had a long conversation with the woman writing for The Telegraph.
- 3 Investigating a news story, Gregory reported some interesting facts to his boss. / Gregory, investigating a news story, reported some interesting facts to his boss.
- 4 Interviewing the presidential candidate, the journalist did not hear his phone ring. / The journalist interviewing the presidential candidate did not hear his phone ring.
- 5 Employees owning a smartwatch use it to always be connected to the company's nation-wide Cloud computer network.
- 6 Social media sites offering jobs to online users are gaining increased popularity.
- 7 Everyone reading the article will be shocked by the realistic description of the incident. / Reading the article, everyone will be shocked by the realistic description of the incident.
- 8 The man giving the introductory speech is the CEO of British Sky Broadcasting.

7 b Vocabulary (p. 113)

- | | | |
|----------|------------------|-----------------------------|
| 1 access | 4 catching up on | 7 get (your message) across |
| 2 sent | 5 criticised | 8 take |
| 3 made | 6 leave | |