

13 Living in an interconnected world

7 Review

7 a Language in use (p. 224)

- | | | | | |
|--------|----------------|---------|---------|----------|
| 1 who | 4 which / that | 7 who | 10 that | 13 who |
| 2 What | 5 whose | 8 who | 11 what | 14 whose |
| 3 that | 6 why / that | 9 which | 12 who | |

7 b Language in use (p. 225)

3, 4, 5

... They all do not have a comma before which/who. So they all are sentences where the information after which / who identifies the person or thing that we are talking about in the sentence.

7 c Vocabulary (p. 225)

- | | | |
|------------|----------------------------|----------------------|
| 1 trade | 4 physical shopping | 7 thousands of miles |
| 2 operates | 5 greater flexibility | 8 fights |
| 3 wealth | 6 Personal recommendations | 9 are reliant on |