

15 The European Union – Europe united?

8 Review

8 a Language in use (p. 255) – Example answers

- 1 Claire believes that the future of the EU is less bright than it was five years ago/not as bright as it was five years ago.
- 2 The trip to Brussels on the night train was a lot more comfortable than expected.
- 3 The people working at the tourist information desk in Strasbourg were far more supportive than expected.
- 4 The speaker at the opening ceremony at the EYP was less enthusiastic while giving his speech than the organisers had hoped for.
- 5 The speech of the politician in the last plenary session of the EU parliament was a lot more powerful than his last speech.
- 6 Damian was more thankful for the EU funding for his company than his friends had assumed.
- 7 Roman believes that protection of the environment is considered to be less important by the EU than it should be.
- 8 The politician reacted to the results of the EU elections much more emotionally than his opponent had assumed.
- 9 According to the students, the trip to Brussels was a lot more inspiring than they had expected it to be.

8 b Language in use (p. 256)

to be discovered to ...	to be found to ...	to be obligated to ...	to be thought to ...
to be expected to ...	to be known to...	to be proved to ...
1 has been found to / has been discovered to / has been proved to	3 be obligated to 4 are thought to 5 has been found to / has been discovered to	6 is known to / is thought to / is felt to OR has been discovered to 7 has not been proved to

8 c Vocabulary (p. 256)

- | | | |
|-----------------|-------------------|----------------|
| 1 inconvenience | 4 taking action | 7 empower |
| 2 work permit | 5 are entitled to | 8 compensation |
| 3 engaged in | 6 grant | 9 guarantee |